Ceramic Fuel Cells Limited

Extension of North-Rhine Westphalia Grant

Ceramic Fuel Cells (ASX / AIM: CFU) ("the Company") announces that the NRW Bank has extended the term of the grant received by the Company.

In December 2009 the Company received a grant of €1,386,000 from the NRW Bank. NRW Bank is the government-owned development bank in the German state of North-Rhine Westphalia, where the Company has built and is operating its volume manufacturing plant.

Under the terms of the grant certain conditions had to be met in order to retain the grant monies.

In the Prospectus lodged with ASX on 4 November 2011 the Company noted that it was in ongoing discussions with the NRW Bank and the Government of North-Rhine Westphalia about the grant conditions, specifically relating to the number of staff employed at the plant.

The Company is pleased to announce that the NRW Bank has given an extension until December 2012, in order to meet the final grant condition.
